YOUR OPINION

Your Vote Matters

The Comox Valley Regional District (CVRD) is encouraging residents to vote in the local government elections on Saturday, October 17. The nomination period for candidates is open until 4 pm on Friday, September 11, 2026.

General local elections are happening across the Comox Valley and include elections for municipal councils, regional district electoral area directors, the Board of Education, and Islands Trust trustees. The elections you're eligible to participate in depend on where you live and own property. There will be many ways to vote, including mail-in ballots, advance polls, or election day polling stations.
